

IELTS Maps and Transformations

February 15th, 2024

Process Diagram: What happens & How (Method)

Maps or Transformations: What, When & Where (location)

“Twenty years ago, there was a hospital opposite the library in the northwest”

****Past to Present Descriptions (I will explain more in our next class)****

- In the picture = present tense
- In the map = present tense
- At the top of the illustration = present tense
- At the bottom of the picture = present tense
- In the depiction = present tense

1. In the picture, there are many housing units in the northwest.
2. In the town, there were many housing units in the northwest.

“I can see in the picture that there were many people at your graduation”

“The designers will be constructing a large cafe beside the enhanced entrance near the ATM machines.”

Future Tenses

Future Perfect Active:

Subject + will have + Verb 3 + Object

“The designers will have built a modern ICT room in the east of the library.”

Future Perfect Passive:

Subject + will have been + Verb 3 + Object

“In the east of the library, a modern ICT room will have been built.”

Future Perfect Passive + by + noun:

Subject + will have been + Verb 3 + Object + by + Noun

“In the east of the library, a modern ICT room will have been built by architects.”